Chicago, October 10.—The Gubs hammered out a victory at the expense of Jim Scott to-day, trouncing the White Sox in the city series 8 to 6. Humphries was in great form allowing the South Siders only four scattered safeties. Four hits and some frosty playing netted the Trojans three runs in the riskth round, and five more counters in the next stanza by means of the same kind of work on both sides. Lathrep pitched the final innings for the Sox.
